Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA) Appoints Craig M. Porter-Rollins, RFC® to Serve on Board of Directors

INDIANAPOLIS – June 18, 2009 – The Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA) has appointed Craig M. Porter-Rollins, RFC® to finish this year’s registered representative seat on the Board of Directors.

Porter-Rollins is the Chief Executive Officer of LJCooper Capital Management LLC, a nationally ranked Registered Investment Advisor. In addition to wealth management he specializes in alternative investment options, real estate and capital gains tax issues. He brings more than 24 years of financial services experience to the Board of Directors.

“Porter-Rollins has the extensive experience and diversity that REISA needs as it broadens its focus in the real estate securities industry,” said Bill Winn, REISA president. “With his proven leadership and experience, Porter-Rollins will help REISA expand its membership and meet its objectives.”

He will serve on the REISA Board of Directors until December 2009.

About the Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA)

The Real Estate Investment Securities Association (REISA), formerly known as the Tenant-In-Common Association (TICA), is a national trade association for professionals who offer and distribute securitized real estate investments. TICA was formed in 2003 to promote and support those involved in the fractional ownership or tenant-in-common industry. These offerings represent all fractional interests in land, commercial real estate, energy and natural resources including DSTs, TICs, funds, partnerships and REITs sold on a securities platform. REISA promotes the highest ethical standards to its members and provides education, networking opportunities and resources. For more information, call REISA at 866.353.8422.
